ADVANCED CARDIOVASCULAR LIFE SUPPORT (ACLS)

15 & 29/1/2027

HKSPMC Background

The Hong Kong Society of Professional Medical Care (HKSPMC), established in 2004, is a non-profit academic professional voluntary charitable institution and Non-governmental Organization (NGO). With a professional approach, the Society is dedicated to enhancing health care knowledge among people from different sectors of society. We are also deeply concerned about the quality of medical and health services, and therefore, have developed a wide range of professional training courses to improve the service standards of healthcare personnel. In addition, we provide high-quality, practice-based courses for secondary school graduates, equipping them for employment in both public and private hospitals, as well as elderly care homes.
